Details & Other Stuff...

Class Cancellations / Refunds

We will make every effort to fill all the classes that are scheduled, but if minimum registration is not met, the class will be cancelled. Participants will be notified by phone if the class is cancelled and will have the option of enrolling in another class if space is available. Reimbursement checks will be mailed out in approximately two weeks. No refunds are given unless the class is cancelled due to insufficient registration.

Release of Liability

Arizona School of Fired Arts, a division of Marjon Ceramics Inc., makes every effort to provide a safe environment and will warn or advise students of any known hazards or situations where caution is needed. Be advised that the production of pottery involves tools, equipment, and raw materials which could be dangerous or harmful, and that you are taking classes at your own risk.

8th Annual Clay Olympics

Saturday, October 30th 2010

The Clay Olympics is an event designed to be a fun competition for clay enthusiasts from all over Arizona as well as a way for the clay community to get together, network, share, commiserate, and celebrate the wonderful mud that links us all together. Everyone is welcome to come down and enter an event or just watch and take in the fun. For more information, call Marjon at (602) 272-6585 and ask for Randy or Dean.

This year we will be having a Halloween theme, so dust off your favorite costume and come have some fun!
